

SECTION 8

The Eighth Practice: Keep Learning

What do you need to know?

The eighth practice of personal leadership is to keep learning. In business, “learning” often takes the form of workshops and seminars. Leaders need a more customized way to learn – a highly personal, completely self-designed approach to becoming even better than they are today.